Ranch Dressing

McEvoy Ranch's (mcevoyranch.com) acres of olive orchards yield a superior organic extra virgin olive oil that is the foundation of 80 Acres body care line. After retiring from the newspaper business at age 72, Nan McEvoy (her grandfather founded the San Francisco Chronicle in 1865) followed a new passion. Her love of Tuscan olive oil inspired her to import 100 seedlings from Tuscany; the ranch and her body care products ensued. Scents of verde and lavender echo the rolling hills and fragrant gardens and inspired her handcrafted Complete Indulgence Collection. Thoughtfully packaged in a galvanized tin with natural shred fill, this gift includes luxurious lotion, wash, body and lip balms, soap, and candle. —MELANIE LANE AND POLINA STEIER
